Father Sean writes..

...this weekend the Church in England and Wales is celebrating Adoremus – the National Eucharistic Congress. The main event took place on Saturday when over a thousand pilgrims walked in a Eucharistic procession from St George's Cathedral Southwark to the Cathedral of the Most Precious Blood, Westminster. Deacon Brent and Lynn, his wife, were two of our Diocesan representatives at the gathering. The Congress gives us the opportunity to reflect on the importance of the Eucharist to our Catholic way of life. The Mass is at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic and many of our forebears were prepared to give their lives in defence of the Mass and all that it signifies. The homilies this weekend will further explore the importance of the Eucharist for us as Catholics. We give thanks to God for all the many blessings we receive from God, but especially the gift of his Son's Body and Blood.

This weekend is also Prisoners' Sunday when we are asked to remember prisoners and their families. If you would like to support the work of PACT, the national Catholic prisons charity, there is a collection box in both churches for donations and a tab on the card machines at St Teresa's!

People's Emergency Briefing...on Tue 13th Oct at 7pm at St Mary's Beaconsfield. An eye-opening 50 min film bringing together 9 leading scientists and experts with the latest evidence and why it matters: extreme weather, food security, health and the cost of living—it gives an overview of how climate change is affecting everyday life in Britain and what science says about the risks and responses. There will be a discussion after the film. Seats are free but limited, so please see the poster on the noticeboard and scan the QR code to book your seat!

Centenary Fundraising Update: A huge thank you to everyone who has given so generously to our Centenary Appeal for the building renovations! To-date, we have £117,000 in pledged funds and have received about £94,000. A more detailed breakdown and update will follow in due course.

Celebrating the Catholic Life of our Schools

We celebrated Education Sunday in our Diocese last weekend and our local Catholic schools in the St Thomas Catholic Academies Trust produced a newsletter highlighting the ways in which they have been living out their mission over the last year. You can read it online here: <https://tinyurl.com/578a9abz> or take a copy from the back of the church.

Money Matters:

Thank you for your generous donations! Last weekend's offertory amounted to:

- ♦ At St Teresa's: Collection plate: £505.87 and £373 via electronic giving totalling £878.87. We also receive weekly standing orders of £1500.
- ♦ And £249.21 at St Dunstan's. We also receive weekly standing orders of £440.
- ♦ The Second collection for CAFOD last weekend raised £831 at St Dunstan's. At St Teresa's, we raised a total of £1071.11. Thank you for your generosity!
- ♦ Centenary Fundraising Appeal: If you would like to donate towards the renovations for the Church, please use the tab marked 'Centenary' on the card machine. Cheques can be made payable to 'St Teresa's Beaconsfield' and write 'centenary' on the back. BACS payments can also be made—see the banking details on the website or contact the parish office for details. Thank you for your continued generosity!

October is usually dedicated to the Holy Rosary and this year, Pope Leo has invited us to pray the Rosary throughout the month especially for peace and an end to war.

Mass in the Parish Centre... At the 8:45am Mass, please do to fill the chairs from the front & middle of the parish centre first so that there is sufficient space for families with prams etc who may require extra room at the back. We appreciate that it is not always possible to arrive before 8:45, so this will help to reduce disruption during Mass. There are also chairs with reserved signs for those with less mobility. Thank you!

Have you Registered yet? Please register your family with either St Teresa's or St Dunstan's for our Parish Census!

See: <https://caspar.church/me/> If you've already registered, please remember to update your details, like house moves, new telephone numbers etc! If you have any difficulties, please call the parish office for assistance.

 Please note, due to weekend Masses currently being in the Parish Centre, the 11:30am Mass will not be live-streamed. We apologise for any inconvenience. *****

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
The Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
The Only Begotten Son of God,
Born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
True God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the holy spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.
